Introduction to Judaism
Mondays, Beginning October 9 | 7 pm
Sardas Beit Midrash, Anshai Torah, Beth

Torah This year-long class provides a wonderful opportunity for Jews and those considering conversion to learn about Judaism's most important concepts and practices. Topics include sacred Jewish texts, holidays, lifecycle events, Israel, the Holocaust, and basic Hebrew reading. The class is taught in rotation with and meets at our partner Conservative synagogues, Anshai Torah and Beth Torah, as well as in the Sardas Beit Midrash. Mondays at 7 PM. $180 per person/$270 per couple. E-mail Theresa Hurt, thurt@shearith.org to register.

Thursdays with the

Rabbis

1st and 3rd Thursdays, Beginning November 16 | 1 pm
Sardas Beit Midrash, Zoom Ahad Ha'am famously said: "More than Jews have kept Shabbat, Shabbat has kept the Jews." But the Torah says very little about how we are to observe this pinnacle of Jewish time. We'll trace the history of the practice and spirit of Shabbat and think together about the place Shabbat, its rituals, and restrictions have in today's world. RSVP to Theresa Hurt at thurt@shearith.org.

RABBI SHIRA WALLACH
Women's Torah Study
Wednesdays | 12 pm
Sardas Beit Midrash, Zoom Join Rabbi Shira Wallach for a weekly encounter with biblical and rabbinic texts that focus on the role and legacy of women in our tradition, and then study modern commentaries written by women rabbis and scholars that allow us to challenge and deepen our relationship with our sacred canon. We will continue using Dirshuni: Contemporary Women's Midrash, which can be purchased online. Email Julia at jlizhnyak@shearith.org to join our email list for weekly sources and Zoom information.

Learning for Parents

Thursdays, Oct 19, Nov 16, Dec 14 | 7pm
At members' homes

We love intergenerational learning with our kids! And it's also important to continue to challenge and nourish our souls as grownups. Join Rabbi Shira Wallach and your Shearith co-parent BFFs as we think about the impact of ritual—both Jewish and secular—in our endeavor to create sacred spaces in our homes, in the midst of all the stress and chaos! When you RSVP to jlizhnyak@shearith.org, you'll receive that session's location.

Every 2nd and 4th
Tuesday Beginning
October 10 | 1 pm

Join Avi Mitzner as we take a close and in-depth look at the Torah with the help of Rashi's commentary. Rashi was an early and influential medieval Torah and Talmud commentator. Widely known as the father of all commentators, his commentary on the Torah is considered an indispensable tool for Torah study. Through our study of Rashi's commentary, we will learn the skills of reading the Torah closely, analyzing the role and importance of every word in the Torah. If you're interested in joining in on this class, contact Avi Mitzner at amitzner@shearith.org or 214-939-7314.

Zoom Only

Makhloket Matters: Building
Political Bridges and Moral
Courage in a Fractured World.

What's an acceptable opinion, and what's beyond the pale? When should we trust our enemy's intentions to make peace, and when should we not? When should we get into an argument, and when should we "let it slide?"

At a moment in which political divides seem to be tearing at the fabric of American society, it can feel like our country is spinning further away from consensus and shared values. "Civil discourse" is getting less and less civil, and in many communities political identification has become the chief marker of social networks. Cue the Jewish concept of "makhloket," or respectful disagreement for the sake of Heaven. This ancient Jewish method of studying sacred texts can be found on every page of classic Jewish literature, and it could provide us with a roadmap for engaging more constructively with opposing opinions and building a more loving, connected, and respectful social landscape in our own communities.

Inspired by a similar class at the Pardes Institute for Jewish Studies in Jerusalem, this four-session course will focus on the productive discomfort of disagreement and help us discover how the radical wisdom of our tradition might help us transform our broken world.

RSVP to Theresa Hurt at thurt@shearith.org.

Republican and two Democratic presidents – Reagan, Bush 41, Clinton, and Obama – he developed close relationships with five Israeli prime ministers: Yitzhak Rabin, Shimon Peres, Ehud Barak, Ariel Sharon, and Benjamin Netanyahu. Few people know the history of Israel, its efforts on peace, or its relations with the Arabs and the region better. For more information, email Theresa Hurt at thurt@shearith.org.

SOCIAL ACTION It Feels Good to Do Good

December 10th – Blanket Project with Religious School

Social Action is partnering with the Religious School to create fleece tie blankets! We need volunteers to help the students with tying off the blankets (no sewing is involved!) and creating cards. The blankets will be distributed to children at Family Gateway and the Vogel Alcove.

September – High Holiday Food Drive

Our high holiday food drive was a huge success. JFS is still counting the donations and we hope to be able to share the final tally for the entire food drive at our October meeting.

October – Diaper Shower

JFS hands out hundreds of diapers weekly and needs to replenish their supply! Throughout October please help by bringing infant, toddler and adult diapers and wipes to CSI and dropping them in the wooden donation bins by the front desk. The items must be sealed and in their original packaging. Partial packages are not accepted.

Upcoming Events:

November – Warm Clothing Collection

Help keep the unsheltered and in-need adults & children warm this winter! We are collecting new coats, blankets, gloves, mittens and hats for children and adults. Gently used, clean coats are also accepted, but all other items must be new & will be collected throughout November. We will donate to the Bridge Homeless & Recovery Center, Family Gateway, and Literacy Achieves!

December - Book Drive

Throughout December we will be collecting new and gently used children's books (ages newborn – high school). We ask every congregant to bring a copy of their favorite children's book. No adult books or religious books! Books will be distributed to Little Free Libraries, the MAA PAA organization and to ESL (English as a Second Language) programs.

Many thanks for supporting our projects! Please join us on October 16th at 7PM in Topletz to help repair the world, and please designate your CSI donations for Social Action to enable us to continue to fund these worthy endeavors! Contact Mindy Fagin at mrfagin1@yahoo.com or Andrea Solka at Andrea@solka.net to participate. We'd love to see you!

4TH - 6TH GRADE RABBINICAL ADVISORY (religious school only)

Sunday, December 10 | 10:30am
4th - 6th grade religious school students will be placed into three advisory groups, each of which will meet with one of our rabbis throughout the school year. The rabbis will each discuss one topic with their group this year: Reading and Understanding the Hebrew Bible, A Tour of Ritual Objects, or What are Mitzvot and Why Should we Observe Them? Over the course of three years, students will rotate through each topic with all three rabbis. We're excited that this returning program will both give our students an opportunity to build relationships with our rabbis and also help them dive even deeper into the topics that will help them transition into Jewish adulthood.

SHEARITH ISRAEL FOUNDATION

“Money makes money. And the money that makes money, makes money” - Benjamin Franklin

Ben Franklin understood how investing now ensures a solid future as it compounds the financial benefits year after year and decade after decade. The Shearith Israel Foundation exists to do the same. With Donor gifts, the Foundation is designed to be able to increase its annual distributions to the Synagogue in perpetuity.

What a wonderful Mitzvah
