

THE BERNARD "BEANIE" SIEGEL
SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAM

GPS JUDAISM

GIVE DIRECTION
TO YOUR LIFE

DISTINGUISHED HARTMAN INSTITUTE SCHOLAR
NOAM ZION

The Bernard "Beanie" Siegel Scholar-in-Residence Program

GPS JUDAISM

Friday, January 29- Tuesday, February 23

Invoke Judaism out of the Torah and into your life. Find time for at least one of the many outstanding opportunities described in the pages that follow. Do it for yourself. Do it for your family. Do it for your community. GPS Judaism is waiting for you.

Noam Zion is Director of Curriculum Development and Teacher Education and Research Fellow at the Shalom Hartman Institute in Jerusalem, a renowned pluralistic center for Jewish learning in Israel with outreach around the world that is open to all streams of Jewish life. Noam is a dynamic and outstanding teacher and communicator. Noam is also a prolific author who has taught in many venues throughout the United States.

This Scholar-in-Residence program is a gift to Shearith Israel and the community in loving memory of a very special father. Bernard "Beanie" Siegel, z"l, taught his young son Andy that Jewish education is a lifelong undertaking. Andy and Lynne Siegel share Beanie's belief in the power of each of us to expand our knowledge and learning experience, and we are grateful to them for bringing us this extraordinary and historic opportunity.
