Thursday Concert & Musical Shabbat Weekend with Netanel Goldberg - February 14-16

Netanel Goldberg, vocal artist, prayer leader, guitarist, composer, creator, and writer, is an Israeli singer-songwriter, who inspired our Prayer Rhythms service. Netanel, from a family of cantors and prayer leaders, first sang at the bimah at eight-years-old. More recently, Netanel began to develop spaces for alternative prayer, healing through song and chanting of the heart. Today he leads prayers and healing circles in Israel, Europe, and the United States.

Nimrod Nol, an international violinist, has appeared throughout the world with a wide variety of musical artists including Kelly Clarkson, Omar Faruk, Tekbilek Ebi and The Moshav Band. Nimrod released his first solo album last May.

Dr. Benjamin D. Sommer visits on February 22-23

Friday, February 22

6 pm - Carlebach/Gospel Service

Followed by a Shabbat dinner and lecture by Dr. Benjamin Sommer, Professor of Bible and Ancient Semitic Languages, Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

Dr. Sommer speaks on Jewish Bible/Christian Bible: Same Words, Different Texts

Shabbat Morning, February 23

9:30 am: Shabbat services

Dr. Sommer shares a d'var torah:

What is the Book of Exodus Really About? (Hint: It's not the Exodus!)

1 pm: Following Kiddush lunch:

Traditional Views About Life After Death and How They Got Lost

Benjamin Sommer

is Professor of Bible at the Jewish Theological Seminary. His books, Revelation and Authority: Sinai in Jewish Scripture and Tradition (Yale, 2015), The Bodies of God and the World of Ancient Israel (Cambridge, 2009), and A Prophet Reads Scripture: Allusion in Isaiah 40–66 (Stanford, 1998), received multiple prizes in the United States and Israel. The Israeli newspaper Ha'aretz described Sommer as "a traditionalist and yet an iconoclast – he shatters idols and prejudices in order to nurture Jewish tradition and its applicability today."

Thanks to generous gifts from the Kogutt family and members of our congregation, we proudly announce the establishment of the Irene Kogutt, z"l Scholar-In-Residence Shabbat Fund. In tribute to Irene, a beloved member of our Shabbat morning Torah Study class for more than a decade, funds have been raised to cover the costs of an annual visiting scholar for several years. Ongoing contributions are welcome and appreciated so Irene's memory may continue to inspire the love of Torah study for years to come.

Mishloach Manot

On Purim, we send food and treats to everyone in our community through the mitzvah of Mishloach Manot. These acts of intentional kindness bring us closer together as a community.

The deadline to order is Monday, February 18!

To make this mitzvah happen -- assembling and delivering over 1,000 baskets -- we need you! On Sunday, March 10 from 9:30-11 am our entire congregation, including families from our Weitzman Family Religious School, Day Schools and Family Center will assemble our Mishloach Manot treats.

The best part is delivering the bags! After assembly, you can take bags with you on March 10, or pick up bags later in the week to deliver them by Purim, on March 20.

These acts of kindness bring us closer together as a community.

HOW TO VOLUNTEER:

Women: Our Strength, Our Stories, Our Village Galentine's Day: Wednesday, February 13 | 6:30 - 8:30 pm

For the second year, Social Action presents Galentine's Day -- a celebration of Women: Our Strength, Our Stories, Our Village. Artists and storytellers, Misty Vento and Shari Lidji, share their passions and inspiration.

All proceeds go to Support The Girls, a non-profit that donates bras and menstrual hygiene products to homeless girls and women.

The evening includes wine, appetizers; fruit and cheese trays, quesadillas and a chocolate bar. Admission is a donation of new panties, bras, menstrual products or $15.

The moderator for the evening is Jacy Sutton, author of Available to Chat. Jacy's work has appeared in the New York Times Motherlode column, Next Avenue, by PBS and HuffPost.

Shari Lidji

Fourteen years ago, Shari began Red Llama Studio, where she designs and produces treasured custom quilts and one of a kind home accessories using her compassionate spirit and textiles for clients nationwide.

Misty Vento, a jane of all art trades, is a mom, artist, yogi and wanderlust soul.

"I love art in any and every form. My artistic career spanned everything from make-up artist to jewelry designer. My most important job is as a mom of two beautiful girls and a son who went to heaven in 2012. Shortly after this life-altering time, I connected to yoga for the spiritual value and as a time to connect with my heart and honor my grief."

LIVESTREAMING

Join us at shul no matter where you are!

This past fall, Shearith added livestreaming of services for congregants who are unable to come to synagogue. The United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism (USCJ) just wrote a piece on how communities increasingly use this technology to open their doors wider.

From the USCJ:

"Increasingly, people are now able to experience an authentic and dynamic Judaism not only in person at their local synagogue, but also virtually from their cell phones, computers and tablets thanks to livestreaming. There are professionals who stream when they are traveling out of town for work. There are couples that stream from their cruise ship or hotel when they are away on vacation. There are people who are recovering from surgeries or battling illnesses, or seniors who find it too difficult to come to synagogue to attend in person each week. "They might not be able to make it, but they can always stream."
