Unlocking Jewish Wonder Summit

A weekend with Karina Zilberman, February 2-4

by Eric Strull, Lay Leader

A big Yasher Koach to Shearith for bringing Karina for a weekend of programming at our shul. I thought that her ideas of exploring the playground mentality, how to expect the unexpected, and trusting the people in the room left a marked impression for all those who attended. Kudos on a great weekend!

by Shirley Davidoff, Vice President

What a great weekend learning how the Shababa approach of “Inspire, Transform, Create and Celebrate” can be used in every aspect of our Jewish lives. I was particularly excited to participate in the education and leadership seminar on Sunday afternoon which was spiritually and emotionally moving. I look forward to applying what I learned and I can’t wait to continue the journey of joy and celebration into my term as Shearith president in the coming years.

by Ellen Bond, Religious School Parent

I felt fulfilled after spending the morning on Sunday. The message of raising ourselves and our families together in a Jewish community was what resonated the most. This isn’t about getting them to a milestone like Bar/Bat Mitzvah or marrying someone Jewish. It is about being part of a supportive community where we can all grow together with Jewish values and beliefs guiding us. Music in particular is such a comfortable way to let go of our inhibitions and to be open to new experiences and extending that to our learning is so natural. For our children, the more you do that as a child, the more open you are to it as an adult.

by Irving D. Pregler, Vice President

This weekend gave me a new perspective on prayer. It taught us a way to instill expressions of joy and meaning to our wonderful traditions. It truly was magical.

Messy Party

Save the Date to celebrate the end of the year with sunshine and a mess!

Sunday, June 3 | 4-6 pm

Congregant Voices | David Charney, Family Center Parent

My wife Jen, and sons Ben and Joel and myself were able to attend both Congregation Shearith Israel Family Retreat weekends. This year at the 2nd annual Family Retreat we added our newest tiny treasure, Sophie. For young families, this is what being Jewish in the community is all about.

Each year we meet new families and revisit with the old friends too. Their kids play with our kids. We learn together. Your middle son forgot a hoodie, borrow our oldest's one! We do activities together and do what it is we were meant to do...and that is have high quality time together.

While there are many events or stories that could come out of a weekend like this (parental advice, moral dilemma debates, Women and wine, Dad's family vehicle debates, Jewish values generation over generation, etc.) the programming led by the staff this year was the highlight of the weekend.

When was your shy child who won't speak in crowds last given the chance to share something they just learned in front of 50 understanding people? When have you found yourself learning something new about your significant other from your children? What unique story have you told many a time but when heard through the voice of a family members makes you think twice about the moral of your own story?

This was a great weekend and our family is seeing and getting together with some new and some old friends long after the retreat. We hope many more young families attend next year and that our circle continues to grow!

Congregant Voices

By Maribeth Lipscomb, Social Action Chair

The sandwich drive was such a simple thing; but what impressed me was the amount of planning behind it. One reason I am happy I have been involved with Social Action at Shearith is the chance I've had to know Larry Krasner better. Larry and his family regularly take snacks and water to the police and firefighters in their neighborhood. Larry and his wife host a very successful MS fundraiser every year. And Larry's been stalwart on the Social Action committee, volunteering at every opportunity. So, he does plenty already. But he really wanted to have a sandwich drive. To tell the truth, I did not understand his focus on this one mitzvah.

But, on the day, seeing all the families trudging in with their boxes and bags of sandwiches, I realized it was the ultimate simple act of kindness--to make a meal for someone that you don't know. The simplicity was deceptive. A lot of careful planning and discussion was needed to connect with Austin Street, and to time the delivery and rent and drive the truck. Fortunately, the shul has a Larry, and a Carol Pinker, who are willing to persist with all these details. And the children already assume there will be another sandwich drive. I heard a boy talking about it that day!

Consecration By Sarah Lipinsky, Director of Education

Consecration is a ceremony of blessing and dedication to God. We celebrate Consecration in 3rd grade rather than kindergarten, because of the significant difference in the maturity of a child's soul. Third grade marks when our talmidim (students) and their families make a stronger commitment to Jewish learning. School is in session more days and more hours. The time they spend in class is still fun, but there are moments of serious study and concentration and in-depth soul searching as a Jewish person. Our talmidim learn to ask questions and find more meaning.

At Consecration, we learned about Havdalah and the talmidim led our congregation in reciting the four blessings. Each student spoke on what being Jewish means to them. Then one family member shared a meaningful Shabbat memory from when they were in 3rd grade. Rabbi Sunshine presented each student with a siddur, donated by SISTERHOOD, then he taught the families an interactive version of the Shema with a new and joyful tune.

The 3rd graders and their siblings handpicked spices to create their own spice jars. I am so proud of Kitah Gimel's (3rd grade) commitment to Jewish learning!

Threats and Opportunities: A Strategic View of the Middle East from US and Israeli Perspectives

Over the past decade, the Middle East has transformed dramatically: centers of power have changed, threats of jihadism and of Iranian ambitions in the region have created new alliances between Israel and Arab states. And the United States has changed its posture in the Middle East, with persistent and growing preferences for a policy of retrenchment. What are the resulting risks and opportunities for Israel, within its borders, in the region and in the world?

Dr. Natan Sachs is the Director of the Brookings Institution's Center for Middle East Policy in Washington D.C. His research focuses on Israel, in particular its foreign policy, domestic politics, and U.S.-Israeli relations. A native of Jerusalem, Sachs holds a bachelor's degree from the Amirim Honors Program at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, and an M.A. and Ph.D. in political science from Stanford University.

1 pm: Rabin to Netanyahu: How and Why Israelis have Grown Skeptical of Solutions

When Yitzhak Rabin entered the prime minister's office in 1992, he offered Israelis a sweeping transformation of Israel's strategic position. He saw a limited window to take chances and attempt to transform Israel's security dilemmas. Twenty-five years later, Prime Minister Netanyahu sees a very different, and far more threatening reality surrounding Israel. How do Israelis think of their own future? Why have they come to adopt an "anti-solutionist," conflict-management approach rather than conflict-resolving attitude?

An Exciting Announcement about our B'nai Mitzvah program

We are pleased to announce a new approach in helping our families craft a meaningful Bar/Bat Mitzvah experience that meets the needs and individual interests of each student. In addition to preparing a Torah reading, reciting the Torah blessings, writing a D'var Torah and performing a Mitzvah Project, students will be offered a variety of options for participation in services including: chanting Haftarah, leading Shacharit on Shabbat morning, leading Kabbalat Shabbat and Ma'ariv on Friday night, or additional Torah readings. Students may choose a combination of any or all of the above, together with their families and in consultation with our klei kodesh. Each of these unique skills unlocks a lifelong pathway to participation in Jewish community. We believe that the flexibility of this new policy will allow our students to take greater ownership of this important milestone in their Jewish journey so that they may continue to go from strength to strength.

Getting Your Home Ready for Pesach...

Pesach (Passover) is the most complex Jewish holiday, filled with seeming minutia of Jewish law. Below is a step-by-step guide to preparing for Pesach. This can seem like an overwhelming amount of work. If you have never done any of these rituals, try choosing one this year. Try doing a thorough cleaning. Or, try just doing the search for chametz. Or, just burn your chametz this year. Trying something new makes a familiar holiday fresh each year!

Until Sunday night, March 29: Cleaning!!!

On Pesach we are commanded to refrain from eating chametz (anything leavened), and we are also prohibited from benefiting from it, or even seeing it! So, before Tuesday night, the entire house should be cleaned and checked for chametz. All counters and cupboards should be cleaned out, dishes changed, and surfaces covered as necessary. Our website, www.shearith.org, has complete details on how to clean and kasher every piece of your kitchen, as well as a guide to kosher-for-Pesach products.

Thursday Night, March 29, after dark: Bedikat Chametz (Searching for Chametz)

On Tuesday evening, after all the cleaning is finished, we inspect our house one last time for chametz. We begin this search with the following bracha (blessing):

Pre-Search for Chametz Blessing

ברוך אתה ה' אלקינו מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצותיו וצונו על בעור חמץ

Baruch atah Adonai Eloheinu melech ha-olam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav, v'tzivanu al bi-ur chameitz.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, King of the Universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us concerning the destruction of chametz.

We search high and low with a candle, a wooden spoon and a feather for this final round of "hide and seek." This is a wonderful family ritual: 'Hide' ten final bread pieces (or Cheerios, pasta, or other chametz) around the house. Holding the candle, search for the chametz and scoop it onto the spoon with the feather. Put it all together in a paper bag to destroy on Wednesday morning. After the chametz is gathered, we make the following declaration stating that our house is free of chametz.

Post Search for Chametz Blessing

כל חמירא וחמיעה דאפא ברשותי דלא חמיתה ודלא בערתה ודלא ידענא לה לבטל ולתנוי
הפקר קעפרא דארעא.

Kol chamira vachami-ah d'ika virshuti dachaziteih ud'la chaziteih, dachamiteih ud'la chamiteih, d'vi-arteih ud'la vi-arteih, libateil v'lehevei hefkeir k'afra d'ara.

All chametz that is in my possession which I have not recognized or seen, and has not been removed, and that I do not know about, should hereby be annulled and ownerless like the dust of the earth.

Friday morning, March 30: Siyum Hachachorim (Fast of the First-born) Minyan 7 am

The first-born male of a family is obligated to fast on Erev Pesach (the day of the first Seder). This fast can be avoided by attending a special Torah class called a siyum, celebrating the completion of a body of Torah learning. Every year, our Thursday morning Dive into Talmud class celebrates their learning at this siyum.

Friday Morning, March 30: Biyur Chametz (Destroying Chametz)

On Monday morning, by 12:28 pm, we destroy all of the chametz in our homes by burning it. After we burn our chametz, we make the following declaration stating that we have destroyed all of the chametz.

Burn Chametz Blessing

כל חמירא וחמיעה דאפא ברשותי דלא חמיתה ודלא בערתה ודלא ידענא לה לבטל ולתנוי
הפקר קעפרא דארעא

Kol chamira vachami-ah d'ika virshuti dachaziteih ud'la chaziteih, dachamiteih ud'la chamiteih, d'vi-arteih ud'la vi-arteih, libateil v'lehevei hefkeir k'afra d'ara.

Any chametz that is in my possession, whether I have recognized it, seen it, or removed it or not, should hereby be annulled and ownerless like the dust of the earth.

Friday evening, March 30, and Saturday evening, March 31: Candle-lighting

Before you light your holiday candles on Friday evening, you can light a Yahrzeit candle or other long-burning candle. While we do not strike matches on Yom Tov, we may transfer fire from an existing flame. So, you can light your Tuesday evening candles from that long-burning candle.

After lighting your holiday candles on Friday and Saturday say the following two blessings:

Candle-lighting blessings:

Both Nights:

ברוך אתה ה' אלקינו מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצותיו וצונו להדליק נר של יום טוב

ברוך אתה ה' אלקינו מלך העולם, שהקנינו וקנינו והגיענו לזמן הזה

Baruch atah Adonai eloheinu melech ha'olam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu l'hadlik ner shel (Shabbat v')Yom Tov.

Baruch atah Adonai eloheinu melech ha'olam, sh'hecheyanu v'keamanu v'higianu lazman hazeh.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, King of the Universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us concerning lighting the Yom Tov candles.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, King of the Universe, granting us life, sustaining us, and enabling us to reach this day.

The Bible prohibits the eating of leaven during the festival of Pesach (Exodus 12:15-20). The Hebrew word "chametz" is translated as leavened bread and refers to food prepared from five species of grain – wheat, barley, oats, spelt and rye – that has been allowed to leaven. Matzah (unleavened bread) is made from any of these aforementioned five species of grain. It is customary, however, to make matzah from wheat flour only, and it is essential that the wheat and flour be given no chance to leaven. Hence, the grain used for matzah must be kept perfectly dry.

The rule against leaven applies not only to its consumption but also to enjoying any benefit thereof and even to its possession. Therefore, before the arrival of Pesach, all leaven must be removed from one's premises and legal possession.

Please see our website for a complete Pesach Guide at www.shearith.org.

Torah Fund Brunch

Honoring Marsha Lev

29 April

11:30 am - 1 pm

Marsha Lev's long list of accomplishments at Shearith Israel includes serving as President of SISTERhood and as a Shearith Israel Board Member. Marsha joined SISTERhood in 1981, taking on various positions including Oneg Shabbat Catering Chair and later College Connection Chair. Marsha has held several Vice Presidencies and she became Sisterhood President in 1995. During her tenure, a Shearith Israel SISTERhood Camp Ramah Endowment Fund was established. Through SISTERhood, Marsha formed many long lasting friendships and gained a myriad of leadership skills.

Marsha also served as a member of the Shearith Israel Synagogue Board, chairing various committees, including the Sandwich Drive and the House Committee. Marsha was instrumental in SISTERhood's donation of new chairs to the congregation.

Marsha is a graduate of the University of Texas with a B.S. in Special Education. She taught in Dallas public schools for eight years. Marsha and her husband Mike married in 1979 and have two sons, Eric and Jordan. In the community, Marsha is involved with several Federation divisions including Women's Philanthropy. She is also a Life Member of Hadassah.

Thank you, Marsha for your leadership and service.
