Pillars

Shearith's Hazak Community

This spring, several of the pillars in our community came together to create a new group to host programs, education and worship opportunities for adults 55+. The group will offer a variety of stimulating, interesting events throughout the year based on members' interests and requests.

The group took the name Pillars: Shearith's Hazak Community. The name Hazak comes from the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism's Organization for Mature Jews (55+). In Hazak the het (ה) stands for Hokhmah – wisdom. The zayin (ז) for Ziknah - maturity. And the kuph (ק) for Kadima - looking ahead.

When Rabbi Roffman looked at the list of couples getting married this year by Shearith Israel clergy, he had two thoughts. First, the list was more than twice as long as last year—a great sign of how many young adults are looking to create a strong bond with our community at a very important time in their lives. Second, it was time to fulfill a promise he made to our longtime members, Sally and Larry Wolfish.

“Shortly after we arrived in Dallas, Larry told me about a class they took with couples who, like them, had just gotten married. He told me that the friendships he and Sally made during the course, taught by Rabbi Ed Feinstein, have lasted to this day. It was important to both of them that we get a similar program up and running. Since that conversation, Shira and I have been working hard to get us to a place where enough young couples would sign up for an experience like this. It was time.”

Rabbis Roffman and Wallach put together a six-week class that covers a range of topics: building sacred partnerships, communication and conflict, intimacy and sexuality, managing finances, and raising Jewish children. More than a dozen couples signed up for the class, which meets in participants’ homes.

“The couples classes offered by Rabbi Roffman and Rabbi Wallach have been both highly informative and enjoyable. We’ve loved learning about relationships—not just through a religious lens, but also through the lens of our peers who go through some of the same challenges and share in many of the same experiences,” writes Jared Sandler, who grew up at Shearith, and is marrying Emily Schneider in November.

Emily Schneider and Jared Sandler

Indeed, many of the participants noted that they have been enjoying getting to know each other just as much as they’re enjoying the learning. “As newer members of the Shearith community it was special to be able to share this time with a group of other young couples in the same season of life,” added Anthony Ferlan, who that we could model these same values by sharing our relationship and our family with the community,” said Rabbi Wallach.

Having a married couple lead the discussions adds a degree of authenticity that has made the learning even more compelling. “We’re very grateful and indebted to Rabbi Roffman and Rabbi Wallach for being so open and honest in sharing their own experiences throughout the course,” added Sammy Trakhtenbroit and Tracie Baker, who are getting married in November.

Laura Rudberg, a member of the Board of Directors and a lifelong Shearith member, feels the same way. “For me and Alex, it is so amazing to see young couples coming together to learn about Jewish marriage and how to build a Jewish home together. The topics have been very relatable and helpful as we begin this new stage in our lives together. Getting to know Rabbis Adam and Shira as well as the other couples in the class has also been a great support network as we start this journey.”

Alex Chaet and Laura Rudberg

“After only a couple sessions, you could already sense the depth of the connection between these wonderful folks and our tradition, and most importantly, with each other,” said Rabbi Roffman. “They’re already talking about seeing each other in the carpool line at our Religious School in a few years.”

Just as this class marks the beginning of an exciting new chapter in the lives of the participants, it also represents a promising start to a renewed connection with the synagogue. Ricky Girson and Annie Jackson, who passed each other in the hallway during their Jewish education at Shearith many times as children, added “We have appreciated reconnecting with Jewish meaning as we embark on this new journey together as a married couple. It’s comforting to know that in the rush and excitement at this moment in our lives, we can find new meaning and belonging in Judaism and in our Jewish community.”

SISterhood

“SISterhood is a place to make lasting friendships.”
- Maxine Pomerantz

President's Message, by Marcy Helfand

When I wrote the message for this column last year, I was just beginning my term as SISterhood President. The year has flown by, with so many wonderful programs, including our successful fundraiser that featured author, Joel Chasnoff; our parenting speaker Miki Johnston, our Tea for Rabbi Sunshine and Jennifer, the Mah Jongg Tournament, our Membership Appreciation event where we made beaded jewelry, our Social Action project with the synagogue where we collected women's underwear for women in shelters, the Women's Shabbat, our Woman of Note featuring Judge Barbara Lynn, and our Torah Fund Lunch honoring Marsha Lev. Whew! That's a lot to do, and only happens because of our dedicated Board and Team who spend many hours planning those events. I give a huge thank you to all of them! If you would like to work on next year's events, please contact me. We would love to involve you in whatever capacity you can manage.

In addition to the programs I have just described, SISterhood funds so many needs at the synagogue. We contribute to the Scholar in Residence, the Directory, the Fall Festival, Equipment for the Kitchen, Break the Fast, the Sandwich Drive, Shababa, Tiny Treasures, Religious School Holiday Parties and Family Programs, the Religious School Shabbaton, and more. If you join SISterhood, your membership dollars help to fund these needs. I hope you can see why those dollars, along with your participation in our fundraisers throughout the year, are so important. Please look for your membership packets coming soon and make sure to join us. I look forward to seeing you this coming year.

“I love getting to know other women through our special interest groups. It's impressive how much SISterhood does, not only for the Shearith community, but for the community at large.” - Diane Lifshen

“I love the connections I make through SISterhood. At the National Conservative Jewish Women's conference, SISterhood's leadership learned about Support the Girls, a nonprofit benefiting homeless women. SISterhood and Shearith's Social Action group then worked together and collected donations!” - Maribeth Lipscomb

Thank You SISTERhood!

Congregation Shearith Israel offers a big Todah Rabbah to SISTERhood for the many areas of support they provide to the synagogue throughout the year.

SISTERhood annually underwrites many programs for the Weitzman Family Religious School, including providing supplies and other support for the classrooms, holiday favors and treats for the children; gifts to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah students; gifts for confirmation and graduation students; and scholarships to attend USY conventions. SISTERhood also provides vital monetary support each year to the Family Center, Tiny Treasures, Shearith Israel Directory, Back to Shul Shabbat, Scholar-in-Residence and the Shearith Israel Kitchen. SISTERhood also generously underwrites Break the Fast at both the Douglas and Beit Aryeh locations and is a sponsor of Shearith's fundraiser, which this past year was Fall Festival and Truck Time.

SISTERhood's dedication to our Shearith community is extraordinary and we are extremely grateful for their hard work and generosity.

SOME RECENT HIGHLIGHTS

Celebrating Israel's 70th Birthday

Cantors Itzhak Zhebker (Shearith Israel), Vicky Glikin and Leslie Niren (Temple Emanu-el), Devorah Avery and Don Croll (Temple Shalom), Sheri Allen (Beth Shalom), and their choirs.

In May, Congregation Shearith Israel Music Committee's Small-Waldman-Cohen 2017-2018 Signature Series brought together Cantors from all over the Dallas-Fort Worth Area led by our own Hazzan Itzhak Zhebker.

Guys' Night Out: SPIRITed Study

We welcomed new faces, young faces and a good blend of Shearith men to share Jewish lessons and fun. Rabbi Sunshine led the four sessions under the encouragement of Shearith President Jack Jacobsen.

Craig Mellman, Bud Applebaum, Max Chanon, Todd Chanon, Josh Katz and Jeff Shenkman

Confirmation Trip

Our Confirmation students spent four days in New Orleans over Spring Break. They served the local community and learned about social and economic justice as an authentic expression of Tikkun Olam, our obligation to repair the world.

Jake Middleman, Emily Caplan, Samantha Ungerman, Anna Robinowitz, Stratton Ross, Hayden Jacobs, Max Segal, Jeffrey Harberg
